

Two Kubla Khan Videos

Though I said in the Teacher Notes there was a dearth of good videos for Kubla Khan, I had forgotten about these two!

The first, on YouTube, is an excellent ensemble reading by actors and students across a range of ages, here:

Highly recommended.

The second, again on YouTube, is a track from Ange Hardy's album Esteese with an image by Tamsin Rosewell. It is narrated over a Hardy folk tune.

The image as a whole piece is stunning but gets perhaps overdone by it being the only visual for the video. That said, the close-ups are engaging. See it here:
